

Leadership

Faculty Qualifications Matrix - Leadership
APSU Course Rubric	Qualifying Credentials	Related Disciplines	Acceptable Alternative Qualifications
LDSP 2xxx, 3xxx, and 4xxx courses and LDSP 2xxx, 3xxx, and 4xxx courses not including Hospitality Administration / Management courses listed below.	Doctorate in leadership, management, organizational behavior, human resource development, psychology, communication or allied fields where the study of leadership and related topics constituted at least 18 hours of one's doctoral education. LDSP 3240, Financial Measurement, Analysis, and Reporting, has an emphasis on a related academic discipline such as Accounting or Finance.		Master's credentials in same areas upon review. Also, focused academic and/or professional experience in specific areas (such as accounting, law, logistics, forensics, research methodology, student affairs/services, academic support, or peer leadership). This would include individuals who are ABD
LDSP 5xxx courses (previously designated as PTMA-prefix.)	Doctorate in leadership, management, organizational behavior, human resource development, psychology, communication or allied fields where the study of leadership and related topics constituted at least 18 hours of one's doctoral education.		Doctoral-level instruction in leadership, management, organizational behavior, human resource development, psychology, communication or allied fields where the study of leadership and related topics constituted at least 18 hours of one's doctoral education. This would include individuals who are ABD.