

Program Accreditation & Review Workshops

October 21, 2021 | 3:00pm-3:45pm

Roles and Requirements Introduction

This session will give an overview of the APSU policy, THEC requirements, and SACSCOC expectations related to Program Accreditation and Review. We will also delineate the role of our office and the role of department representatives. Finally, the Office of Institutional Effectiveness and Assessment will offer an overview of how the IE and Assessment processes factor into accreditation and review efforts.

November 18, 2021 | 2:00pm-2:45pm

Resources for Program Accreditation and Review

This session will detail the various resources available to academic department representatives involved in the Program Accreditation and Review processes for their departments. We will look specifically at the SPARM resources available in Microsoft Teams, including the Self-Studies Document that contains boiler-plate university-wide language for self-study reports. A representative from Decision Support and Institutional Research will highlight the dashboards available via ARGOS and other services provided by DSIR to assist with accreditation and review efforts.

January 20, 2022 | 3:00pm-3:45pm

IEA and Program Accreditation/Review

This session will allow representatives from the Office of Institutional Effectiveness and Assessment to outline the integral role that IE and Assessment play within the Program Accreditation and Review processes. IEA will also share information about various other workshop and professional development opportunities provided by their office.

February 17, 2022 | 3:00pm-3:45pm

Hosting Visits for Program Accreditation and Review

The goal of this workshop is to highlight the various ways in which our office and the office of Institutional Effectiveness and Assessment can support the site visit process for Program Accreditation and Review, from preparation on the front end to logistics during the visit.

March 17, 2022 | 2:00pm-2:45pm

Panel Discussion: Program Accreditation and Review Leaders

The final session in this series will provide space for Administrators and Faculty to share their experiences—triumphs and struggles—from recent Program Accreditation or Review cycles.
