Financial Support Form Full-time F-1 Visa Students

As an international student, you are required to show that you will have enough financial resources available for all potential educational and living expenses for each academic term at Austin Peay State University. This form is mandatory for admission. Your Form I-20, used for the issuance of a visa, cannot be issued to you until you have been admitted to the University and satisfactorily completed and returned this form. All questions must be answered in full. Omission of any answer may cause delay in or denial of admission to the University.
