

APSU Writing Center
APA Style 7th Edition - Citing Clip Art

Clip Art or Stock Image References

• Basic Format:

- Creator Last Name, First initial. (Year). Title of image [Description of form]. Website Name. URL

This resource contains examples for:

1. Image with no attribution required
2. Image that requires an attribution

1. Image with no attribution required

- If clip art or stock image licenses indicate "no attribution required," no APA Style reference, in-text citation, or copyright attribution is needed. For instance, in APA papers, provide a figure number and title for such images without additional citation. In presentations like PowerPoint, the figure number, title, and note are optional.

Note. Participants assigned to the cute pets condition saw this image of a cat.

2. Image that requires an attribution-

- For clip art or stock images requiring attribution, include a copyright attribution in the figure note and a reference list entry. Images with Creative Commons licenses often require attribution. Provide a figure number and title for the image in APA papers, with the copyright attribution below. In presentations, the figure number and title are optional, but the copyright attribution is necessary. The attribution includes the same elements as the reference list entry (title, author, date, site name, URL), followed by the Creative Commons License name.
